

Get ready for a new, fun, at-home experience for this year's Creative Best Awards Show!

Columbus Society of Communicating Arts is a 501(c)6 nonprofit organization and is 100% volunteer-run. Since 1970, CSCA has supported the growth of designers, writers, production specialists, illustrators, students, educators, and we appreciate your support!

Creative Best is our biggest fundraiser of the year. Your donations will go directly towards our student scholarships (awarded to the winners in the seven student categories) and toward future event programming, which we've been able to convert to free, virtual events during the pandemic to better serve our community during these trying times.
